New cloud services: Microsoft Powerapps for creating custom applications

Microsoft Powerapps is a browser-based tool on which users are able to create custom applications. Microsoft added it to the Office 365 Education app collection this year.

The info page of Powerapps contains a short overview plus links to written guides and instructional videos.

Cloud services used by Metropolia students and staff.