

Groundless emails are sent to new students concerning locked user accounts

Groundless emails are sent to new students (exchange students, among others) concerning locked user accounts by Metropolia user administration.

You don't have to care for these emails, if you are registered and you are studying now.

We apologize for inconvenience!