

Amme

Use and permissions

Amme is Metropolia's user administration system and it holds the user ID's of staff, students, partner organization affiliates, and external users. Among partner organizations are included schools located in the same buildings with Metropolia (The Helsinki Conservatory of Music, Pop and Jazz Conservatory) and personnel of outsourced services. Among external users are included other users such as consultants and external partners in projects.

Amme manages among others things...

- automatic synchronizing services of user and individual data used by essential information systems
- web based user interfaces for administering user and individual data
